OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL.
MEMPRIS. Sentember 5, 1888. The money market was quiet, with no new features of interest, and nothing, in fact, wor-thy of note, outside of a better demand for Northern exchange, which made it necessary some of the banks to remit corrency, a though, as a rule, the banks were well supplied. Business in the general market was not as brisk as usual at the close of the week, which may be cribed to the interest just now centering l the crops. Exchange rates are firm, as follows Buying. New York par to prem prem
